Summer Programs and Conference Services at Washington University in St. Louis provides complete support for summer camps, workshops, conferences, and seminars. We specialize in facilitating all housing, dining, transportation, and meeting needs. Our staff members help clients and University departments plan every aspect of their program or conference.

The University is centrally located in a beautiful residential area minutes from Downtown St. Louis. The 169 acre campus features predominantly Collegiate Gothic architecture including a number of buildings on the National Register of Historic Places. Shops, dining, and entertainment are a short walk away from campus including The Delmar Loop and Historic Forest Park.

Washington University is home to the number one dorms in America. Check it out here.
